Refund Policy

- Paradizo is committed to providing a Tour and a experience of the highest quality. In the event that you are not able to attend, unsatisfied with your Tour or service, this refund policy explains when a refund is applicable.

Cancellations within your cooling off period:

- If booked between 1st of March to 5th of April, there is a 5 Day cooling off period from the day of your deposit payment, where if you have changed your mind for whatever reason, you can get a full refund of your deposited amount.

Cancellations outside your cooling off period until the 1st May:

- If you decide for whatever reason to cancel your participation in the tour once your cooling off period is over, the organizers will try to recover as many costs as they can. This amount will depend on the services that have been paid and are non-refundable from third party operators (e.g. Flights, buses, passes, activities, accommodation etc). There is no guarantee on amounts refundable, due to the policies that we must follow when we book for you. We will be booking everything necessary as soon as your cooling period has finished to ensure that we have secured this for you.

Cancellations from 1st May:

- There will be no refunds made if you decide to cancel the tour.

Cancellations regarding COVID-19:

- If you contract COVID-19 or become sick, you may be asked to take a test and if positive, you will be asked to leave the tour until you receive a negative result to ensure the safety of the whole group.

- If you contract COVID-19 prior or during the tour, no refunds will be provided, however your bookings will still remain valid. We will try to assist you to re-join the group as soon as possible.
- If you contract COVID-19, all testing, treatments, isolation and additional travel expenses whilst you outside of the tour group will be at your own expense.
